CKCA collects dues for many reasons; they include our electronic communications via the Internet, IRS filings, state filings, US Postal fees and other mandatory costs related to keeping the Community Association successful.

All time spent by Board members and appointees are by volunteer and are at no cost to the Association.

If your email address has changed or you would prefer to get your communiqué from CKCA electronically, please enter the email address here:

We have a “Treasurer” position on the Board of Directors with CKCA, being vacated by Jim Reidburn. If you are interested in nominating someone from our community, please print their name on the line below. The election will be after our Annual meeting.
